The investigation against Defendant Liu charged with homicide of her newborn is closed and concluded as follows:

On February 23th 2019, Prosecutor Wei-Cheng Liu initiated an operation by directing judicial police officers from Miaoli Branch of Department of Police to investigate Defendant Liu for suspicious death of her newborn. At the stage of investigation, Prosecutor Liu conducted the examination of the corpse, together with a coroner, instructed the judicial policeman to gather and seize evidence, and examined Defendant Liu. Prosecutor Liu had reasonable grounds to suspect that Defendant Liu had committed the homicide of her infant, and there were facts sufficient to justify an apprehension that she may abscond. Judge of Taiwan Miaoli District Court, upon request of Prosecutor Liu, granted the detention of Defendant Liu and disallowed any visitors and any form of outside communication to Defendant Liu. The Prosecutors Office now concluded the investigation and indicted Defendant Liu for committing homicide of her newborn ,in violation of Paragraph 1, Article 271 of Criminal Code.
